

ZAIUX Evo – data sub-processors

Software: ZAIUX Evo
Vendor: Pikered S.r.l.
Version: v.1.0
Subject: list of personally identifiable information sub-processors
Date: 23.02.2026

The following is a list of sub-processors that concur to the processing activities defined in the ZAIUX Evo Data Processing Agreement.

Sub-processor	Processing	Data and processing location
Microsoft Ireland Operations, Ltd.	Listed below are the activities that may be performed during the execution of the contract: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Hosting, through the Azure cloud platform, of the infrastructure employed by the product, where the main processing activities are performed. The products involved include: Service Bus, Function App, Azure Container Instance, App Service, Virtual Machine and their supporting services.- Data transmission through secured public channels with platform users and target infrastructures- Long-term storage of BAS results, in the form of report documents and digital assets for consultation in the User Interface. The products involved include: SQL Server, Storage account and their supporting services.- If enabled, analysis of exfiltrated data and execution results with Large Language Models. The products involved include: Foundry and its supporting services. The processing operations may be the following: storage, communication by transmission, comparison or interconnection, deletion or destruction;	Data centers in any Azure region within the EU. https://learn.microsoft.com/en-us/azure/reliability/regions-list